

SNA - NC ANNUAL SNAC ART CONTEST

“Nutrition, Wellness and Physical Activity”

RULES:

The School Nutrition Program is asked to promote, conduct, and sponsor the 2016-2017 SNAC Art Contest in each of the district’s schools. EACH SCHOOL DISTRICT IS TO SELECT 3 WINNERS FROM ALL SCHOOL ENTRIES: one from grades K-4, one for grades 5-8, and one from grades 9-12 to be submitted for the School Nutrition Association of N.C. SNAC Art Contest Competition. The entries must be submitted to the current state SNAC Chair no later than APRIL 15 of the current school year.

All entries must be accompanied by a completed official entry form signed by the Principal, the Manager, and the local Child Nutrition Director.

All entries must be the student’s original drawing on 8 ½ x 11 inch, white unlined paper (regular, plain white typing paper: construction paper or poster board is not accepted).

All entries must have the theme, “Nutrition, Wellness and Physical Activity” printed on them.

All entries should be colorful and relative to the theme.

The student’s name, address, grade, and school must appear on the back of the entry.

FINALISTS

Three winners will be selected from all entries:

1 from grades K-4

1 from grades 5-8

1 from grades 9-12

Each of the three winners may attend the food show at SNA-NC conference and will receive a $50.00 gift card, a framed copy of their winning picture, and a certificate.

JUDGING:

Entries received from each Child Nutrition Director will be judged by grade category, by the SNA-NC SNAC Committee or others appointed by the SNAC Chair.
